Dear Global Gifters.

From the bottom of my heart, welcome to this very special night. Tonight, under the shining lights of the Cannes Film Festival, we gather not just to celebrate glamour, but to unite in purpose, compassion, and hope.

The Global Gift Gala is more than an event—it is a movement. A call to action that reminds us we are all connected by a simple yet powerful truth: we rise by lifting others. Every gesture of kindness, every contribution, every moment shared tonight is a step toward creating a more just, loving, and inclusive world.

I have always believed that true success is not measured by what we achieve for ourselves, but by the lives we touch along the way. That is why tonight's gala supports the work of the Global Gift Foundation, championing projects that improve the lives of children, women, and families across the globe. Thanks to your generosity, we can continue to build bridges of opportunity, bring hope where there was none, and transform challenges into possibilities.

We are blessed to be joined tonight by remarkable individuals who inspire us through their hearts and actions:

- Our Honorary Chair, Eva Longoria: my sister in this misión is an international advocate for women, social justice, and children. Her compassion, courage, and authenticity are unmatched.
- The Global Gift Women Empowerment Award goes to Lauren Sánchez, a woman of courage, vision, and heart uplifting others through action and example.
- The Global Gift Philanthropreneur Award is presented to Dr. Hamed Rasoulof, who reminds us that philanthropy and entrepreneurship can go hand in hand for good.
- Special Guests: Adrien Brody, Paul Pogba, and Amaury Nolasco, whose voices help raise awareness beyond borders.
- Performances by the incomparable Laura Pausini and the electrifying Gipsy Reyes Heritage, sharing the universal language of music and love.

My deepest gratitude goes to our sponsors and partners who make this magic possible: APM Monaco, La Môme Plage, MTX Matsumoto Technology, and our cherished collaborators, Mamzel by Finca Besaya, Nota Blu, Maxime Cuvée, This World, Château Enclos Haut Mazeyres Pomerol, Grégory Verlet, and many more. Your belief in our mission ensures that 100% of the funds raised tonight go directly to those who need it most.

A heartfelt thank you to our extraordinary auctioneer, Julie Brunie, whose talent and charisma elevate tonight's giving to new heights.

We are also deeply grateful to the visionary artists who have donated their work to support this cause with beauty, soul, and generosity: Fray Sidival Fila, Jaime Monge, Richard Orlinski, Leloluca, and Yanina Couture. Thank you for turning your art into hope and healing for others.

Each of you here tonight plays a vital role in this beautiful tapestry we are weaving. Your presence is a testament to the power of community, solidarity, and love in action.

As we celebrate under the stars of Cannes, may we remember: every act of giving is a seed of hope planted in the heart of humanity. Together, we are not just making a difference we are the difference.

With all my love and gratitude.

VIETNAM

www.globalgiftfoundation.org

Casa Ángeles Vietnam is an orphanage that cares for over 100 abandoned, orphaned, or disabled children in Da Nang, Vietnam. Originally founded by Buddhist nun Thich Nu Minh in 1996, the center began when she found an abandoned baby at her doorstep and opened her doors to vulnerable children in need of shelter, food, education, and care.

Today, thanks to the dedication of Thich Nu Minh and community support, Casa Ángeles Vietnam has grown into a safe haven not only for children but also for elderly women and people with disabilities.

The Global Gift Foundation supports the center by helping provide essential resources such as food, medical care, educational support, and basic supplies—to improve the lives and future of these children. Through this collaboration, many of them now have access to opportunities they would not otherwise have had.

PARTNERS

The missing piece of the puzzle

Redefining social media by cultivating a culture of inclusivity, kindness, and authentic real-world connection, shaping a healthier, more meaningful digital landscape.

In a world increasingly shaped by digital interactions, ThisWorld emerges as a bold reimagining of what social media could and should be. It's not simply another platform, but a vision for the future of human connection, one that transcends the limitations of today's digital landscape and opens the door to a more meaningful, purposeful way of engaging with one another.

Imagine a world where connection is not measured by followers or likes, but by the depth and authenticity of the relationships we build. A space where the noise of superficiality and polarization gives way to thoughtful dialogue, shared purpose, and a collective commitment to the betterment of society and the planet. ThisWorld is a call to step beyond the digital echoes of modern media and into something far greater, a space where individuals are invited not just to exist, but to live fully, with intention, and in harmony with others.

the way we address them. In a time where issues like climate change, sustainability, protecting nature and wildlife, pollution, mental health, and polarization seem overwhelming, ThisWorld embodies the belief that small actions can lead to great change, and that when people come together, transformation is possible. It's a space where the global challenges we face are met not with despair, but with hope, collaboration, and a renewed sense of shared responsibility.

This vision isn't simply about responding to the world's problems, it's about reimagining

this world

What if social media wasn't just a place to scroll endlessly, but a platform where individuals could rise to meet the challenges of the world, find and share their unique voices and where everyone is celebrated for who they truly are?

Where we could come together not just to share moments, but to create a better and more sustainable Future?

ThisWorld is that space. A place where authenticity isn't just a buzzword, but the very foundation of every interaction. A place where people are encouraged to be themselves, take action, and dream bigger than ever before.

At its heart, ThisWorld envisions a digital world where every person feels empowered, not just to share their story, but to change the story. To rise above the divisions that have come to define our modern conversations, and to find common ground in the shared desire to make the world a better place.

It's about weaving together the strength of individuals, communities, and cultures to create something that transcends the digital realm, impacting the physical world in ways we've only just begun to imagine.

What makes ThisWorld even more profound is the way it invites people to connect with themselves. To truly get to know who they are, beyond the masks, the roles, and the expectations. It's a place where the user is encouraged to become the best version of themselves, sharing not just what they do, but who they are. It's a CV of the soul, a digital space where your values, dreams, and experiences take center stage. It is entertaining but also about self-exploration and self-expression, fostering a sense of identity that is as rich and multifaceted as the real world.

This is the vision of a digital world that doesn't just entertain, but empowers. It's a space that's as much about finding inspiration and having fun as it is about making positive change. The goal is not just to watch, but to engage and create, to be inspired and inspire others in turn. It's a place where entertainment and purpose come together, creating a digital experience that feels as vibrant, meaningful, and impactful as life itself.

Imagine a world where technology, when used with intention, doesn't just serve commercial interests or fleeting trends, but becomes a force for good. A tool to bridge the gap between online and offline interaction.

This vision is bigger than a single platform. It is about creating a new kind of world, one where connection, collaboration, and positive change are at the forefront of everything we do. It's a world where the individual and the collective work together to build something that will echo through the generations to come.

Because when we connect with purpose, we begin to change the world.

Greg Verlet

« Bubbles of pleasure »

*Champagne is inseparable from all great moments.
The wine of kings is of course the king of wines.
But there is no point to gird your head with any crown.
Pleasant company and a unique moment are enough to justify unlocking the mantle of a bottle of champagne.*

Since Dom Pérignon decided 3 centuries ago to produce the best wine possible in the heart of the champagne vineyards, generations of talented craftsmen have contributed to making this exceptional nectar shine throughout the world.

In Barbonne-Fayel, in the heart of the region Champagne, halfway between Troyes and Epernay, the Verlet house is in its third generation and Greg, the heir of grandfather Georges who planted the first vines in the 1960s continues this champagne tradition of excellence favoring, on its small estate, quality over quantity.

The bottles allow the emblematic grape variety that constitutes them to be expressed with delicacy and frankness : Chardonnay. The bubbles are fine and regular and release an aromatic palette of unexpected complexity. The characters which make the particularity of the grape variety are expressed with clarity, but without excess. Slowly. In delicacy. In face of flavours that gently excites the taste buds for more enjoyment. This pleasure that makes you believe you are tasting a good product. The uncompromising result of quality workmanship.

Floral with a touch of hazelnut and an acidity enhanced by light citrus fruits, « Champagne Verlet By greg » is distinguished not only by the luxurious sobriety of its bottle, but also by its color and its characters. Moreover, the tables of exception of the Hexagon were not mistaken in putting them of their menu. And as Greg knows that there is no upper limit to excellence, he prepares and refines in his cellars, the result of careful ageing in barrels, a top-of-the range cuvée which will give its elegant aromas if pleasant with all the occasions that one can imagine. Especially those that should provide pleasure.

A lot of pleasure !
